Short Story Brainstorming

Brainstorm some IDEAS you could use in writing a story.

Be creative and try to think of people, places and problems you have not written about before.

Protagonist

Antagonist

Setting

Conflict

Short Story Brainstorming

Once you've figured out your characters, setting and conflict for your short story, use the chart below to brainstorm some details about each. What do your characters look like? What are their personality traits? Describe the setting using descriptive words. Add some history or extra details to the conflict or problem.
